Artist and dentist make unlikely but successful combination

Local dentist meets Britain's favourite artist

Arden House DENTAL centre for excellence has recently undergone some radical changes, from important investments in advanced dentistry, a new brand and website, to the purchase of some more Doug Hyde pictures for their premises on London Road in Charlton Kings, Cheltenham.

Ian Hazlem, owner of the practice is a committed Doug Hyde fan, and was delighted to learn that Doug, recently voted Britain's best selling artist, was to be visiting the Whitewall Gallery in Stratford.

Arden House DENTAL is the proud owner of a number of Doug Hyde paintings, and Ian is always keen to add to the collection. Patients always comment on the pictures that are hung throughout the surgery and waiting areas.

Ian is a great believer in creating a happy and relaxed environment at his surgery and Doug's paintings fit this perfectly – being known for their enchanting depictions of human emotions. Many patients have tracked down the local Whitewall Gallery in Cheltenham to buy them for themselves.

Ian said: "I was delighted to meet Doug, having been such a fan for so many years it was great to be able to tell him in person how much pleasure his paintings have given not only me but all my patients as well. It was also interesting to hear that his pictures are popular with dentists in Japan!"
